

Applications Open Limited seats

MSc Research Ethics

Yenepoya deemed to be University, Mangalore, India announces the launch of the Yenepoya University - Fogarty International Center Research Ethics Masters Program for India (a National Institutes of Health- Fogarty International Center funded program grant no. 1R25TW010305-01). This unique academic program is especially designed to enhance ethical practice in biomedical research involving human participants in India.

Program Directors: Dr. Vina Vaswani, Yenepoya University and Dr. Bebe Loff, Monash University, Australia

Duration: Full-time, semester-based, 2 year course

Eligibility criteria: Bachelor's: (MBBS/BDS/BPT/BSc in any science stream) from a UGC recognized institution

Degree awarded: Master of Science (MSc) Research Ethics

Tuition fee: Nil

Last date for submitting duly filled forms: 30 April 2018

Interview for shortlisted candidates

(Skype or telephonic): 2-5 May 2018

Communication to selected candidates:
15 May 2018

Course commencement: 16 July 2018

Faculty: International and national

For more details:
www.ethics.edu.in/yu-fic.htm
or contact Dr. Vina Vaswani, Director, Centre for Ethics at yu_fic@yenepoya.edu.in or call +91 9449003989

